Case No. _____

JOINT PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

The Plaintiff and the Defendant are enjoined (prohibited) from doing the following acts while this case is pending before the court:

- 1) Transferring, encumbering, concealing, selling, or otherwise disposing of any of the joint, common, or community property of the parties, including the charging of goods or services to any credit account, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, without the written consent of the parties or the prior order of the Court.
- 2) Molesting, harrassing or disturbing the peace of the other party or any child or stepchild of the parties, either orally, by phone or in person, at home, at work or at any other place.
- 3) Committing an assault or battery on the person of the other party or any child or stepchild of the parties.
- 4) Removing any child of the parties from the State of Idaho without the prior written consent of the parties or the prior order of the Court.

This injunction is enforceable by all remedies provided by law. THIS IS AN OFFICIAL COURT ORDER. If you disobey this order the court may find you in contempt of court, which may subject you to a fine or incarceration or both. The Plaintiff is ordered to serve this Injunction upon the Defendant at the time of the service of the Summons and Complaint.

Dear Steve:

The District Judges met today and unanimously agreed that Honorable Judge Doolittle will be the Administrative Judge for the Third Judicial District commencing December 1, 1987, and that he will continue in that position for two years or such further time as the Judges agree upon at the conclusion of his first term.

This letter can serve as the minutes of that meeting and should be kept with the Administrative Orders unless objected to within five days.

Respectfully,
