Administrative Order
2021-10

WHEREAS, the Guardianship and Conservatorship Monitoring Coordinator for the Third Judicial District ("Coordinator") is a professional "employed by or working under the supervision of the courts," for purposes of Idaho Court Administrative Rule (ICAR) 32; and

WHEREAS, the Idaho Supreme Court's March 1, 2018 ORDER IN RE: GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP MONITORING COORDINATOR provides that such Coordinator "shall have access to all records of the parties in appointed cases, including: all court filings, including attachments, in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings, whether temporary or permanent, and whether for an adult or a minor, as specified in Idaho Court Administrative Rule 32(g)(19)" and "with the approval of the custodial judge, have access to any other case file which may contain information relevant to the appointed case," it is

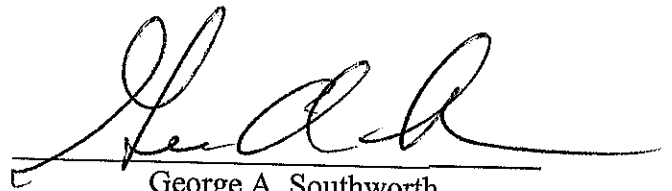

ORDERED that, pursuant to ICAR 32(c)(5), 32(g)(19), the Coordinator shall have access to all records of the parties in appointed cases in courts of the Third Judicial District, including: all court filings, attachments, and official court recordings in guardianship or conservatorship proceedings, temporary and permanent, and whether for an adult, minor or developmentally disabled person; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Coordinator, with permission from the presiding or custodian judge, shall have access to the contents of any other Third Judicial District case file that may contain information relevant to the appointed case; and it is further,

ORDERED that the Coordinator shall keep information obtained pursuant to this Order strictly confidential, except as may be necessary in the performance of the Coordinator's duties; and it is further,

ORDERED that it is recommended that the Coordinator be provided with remote hearing information and access to all remote and other hearings, where feasible, in order to assist the Coordinator in fulfilling his or her duties in the most efficient manner possible.

Dated this 13 day of April, 2021.
